WHO: LA Harbor International Film Festival (LAHIFF)

WHAT: 20th annual

WHEN: March 2-5, 2023

WHY: Not juried, non-competitive film festival celebrates the cinematic arts to entertain, educate and enlighten the film going audience.

The LA Harbor International Film Festival (LAHIFF), founded in 2003, is held annually with occasional special programs throughout the year often partnering with other community oriented non-profit organizations. A non-juried, non-competitive film festival LAHIFF aims to entertain, enlighten and educate the cinematic audience by showcasing film and video that reflects the harbor and all that it embraces – shipping and commerce, fishing, sailing, water sports, sea life and the area’s rich ethnic and cultural influences; and to promote the documentary genre via DocSunday, literacy and a more thoughtful way to view a film through the education outreach program “Read the Book, See the Movie” – to create a cinematic bridge between the people of the region and the people of the world. (LAHIFF is a 501c (3) non-profit organization.
